

19 ADAMS DRIVE, FALMOUTH, ANTIGUA

PRICE US$69,500

A well located building plot situated on the edge of Falmouth with views over Falmouth Harbour and benefitting from the trade wind breezes.

The plot measures 0.2 acres and is almost rectangular in shape with a good road frontage. The land slopes gently down from the road and has been generally cleared except for a number of trees which could be retained or felled.

Main water, electricity and telephone/internet connections are available in the road.

English Harbour is ten minutes drive and St. John's and the international airport are about half an hour away. The local supermarket in Falmouth and the liquor store are only five minutes away. Bus services stop on the main road which is 400 yards from the site.

Some of Antigua's best beaches are less than 15 minutes drive away.

Plots of this size rarely become available in this location.
